

Picture This

What are some new and special activities that you are excited to try together with your family? In these frames, draw pictures of the new routines your family has begun since Mom or Dad returned home. Add your own words to describe all the fun the new routines can be.

