

Wiggle Worm

When life with young children feels overwhelming, taking a moment to reset can help you feel calmer and respond confidently. Use this activity to slow down, connect, and laugh. Look together: how many worms can you find? When you find one, circle it and then do a wiggle dance!

